

Greenwich Domestic Abuse One Stop Shop

Advice and Support to deal with abuse

IS IT NORMAL IF HE (OR SHE) ...

- Acts jealous and possessive over me?
- Demands sex when I don't really want it?
- Acts in an aggressive way towards me or damages my possessions.

DO I HAVE TO ...

- Try not to upset him / her or my family?
- Be threatened intimidated and blackmailed by him / her or my family?
- Let him / her control my money?
- Be forced into a Marriage

SHOULD I TOLERATE ...

- Him / her controlling what I wear and Who I see?
- Being locked in the house by him / her or my parents?
- Being physically hurt by him / her or my family?
- My children being physically and emotionally hurt?

NO
IT'S NOT YOUR FAULT

AND REMEMBER...

Domestic violence doesn't always mean abuse from a male partner. It can also be from a female partner, or from family, such as Parents, Children & Siblings.

We're here to help, no matter who is inflicting the abuse.

Our Domestic Abuse Drop-In provides Practical and emotional support & advice in the form of...

- Domestic violence advocates
- Solicitor to give advice on family law
- Council Housing Advice
- Emergency housing referrals (Access to safe housing)
- Basic benefits advice
- Referrals to specialists in immigration
- Referrals to social care providers
- Referrals to counselling and support groups

Service provided by:

Hudgell & Partners (020 88541331)

Her Centre (020 32607772),

Housing for Women (020 83178273),

Ascent

Every Friday 10 am – 12 pm

YMCA Thames Gateway
Antelope Road
Woolwich, SE18 5PQ

Buses, DLR and train to Woolwich

For more information, please call Greenwich DV Helpline on 0208 317 8273

Other Agencies That Can Help
National Domestic Violence Helpline 0808 2000 247
Rape Crisis 0808 802 9999
The Havens 0203 299 1599