New staff at Her Centre!

Following Jane moving out of London and a slight shuffle, Her Centre has increased our Independent Domestic Violence Advocacy team with a new part time post.

So, we now have Winsom, our new 3 day a week IDVA, and Becky, our new follow up support worker, as well as Natalie, who has moved from the support role to a part time IDVA post as well.

Kristal, a placement from Greenwich Local Labour and Business, will be with us for 6 months helping with our monitoring reporting, and Rhiannon, from University of Greenwich internship programme, will be carrying out research on the impact of our work over 3 months from January.

Welcome all!

HER Centre offers free weekly English language class for non English speaking women. Next session will commence in January 2017 and will be running for a duration of 12 weeks (Excluding school calendar holidays).

For more information and to register, contact HER Centre via: email: ola@hercentre.org or call 0203 260 7715.

Women and Hate Crime

Should sexual harassment be a hate crime?

Her Centre are organising an open forum to hear speakers and then debate whether the harassment, threats and abuse women face from men in the streets, on public transport and in pubs and clubs should be treated as a hate crime.

Speakers include campaigners from A Good Night Out, specialist police spokesperson, local community groups giving women's experiences.

There will be workshops and a panel taking questions.

Lunch is provided.

Please contact Navie Kalsi at navie@hercentre.org to book your free place.

Free help with family law applications

Our volunteering service offers clients free and confidential help and support with drafting court applications and statements especially in the area of Domestic Violence.

The help concerns, Non-Molestation Orders (court to prevent one person and/or a child from being harmed or threatened by another), Occupation Orders (which decides who can live in the family home or enter the surrounding area),

Divorce Petitions (initial form filling only) and Sometimes the volunteers can provide emotional support to clients in court.

IDSVA Young Women's Independent Domestic and Sexual Violence Advocate (temporary)

Her Centre is seeking a part time experienced domestic/sexual violence advisor. Salary is £22,000 per year for 28 hours a week. This post is for 12 months initially, but may be extended a further year.

Experienced in working with domestic abuse and with young people, you will provide a pro-active service to young female victims of domestic/sexual violence in Bexley, which will involve carrying out risk assessments, helping clients access their rights, raising awareness of abuse and consent, monitoring and keeping clients informed of case progress and providing support through the criminal justice system, as well as providing risk awareness sessions. The post requires outreach across Bexley. Car user preferred though not essential.

Closing date 27th January, at 5PM. Please email Reshma for application pack at reshma@hercentre.org

Funded by Big Lottery Due to the intensive and sensitive support involved in this post, the posts are open to women only. Section 7(2)e of the Sex Discrimination Act exemption applies. Her Centre is a registered charity, no. 1070755.
