

Stand by Her

Do you want to play a role in tackling violence against women?

We live in a society where 97% of young women have been sexually harassed. Men's Violence against women is widespread but still perceived purely as a women's issue. It's time to change the focus and narrative.

Be a part of the solution!

Stand by Her is a unique training program that empowers men to become effective allies to women. We will explore men's behaviour and attitudes that can lead to harmful behaviour. You will explore some real-life case studies and examine how men can best respond.
