

“empowering women to move forward with their lives”

We are Looking For Women Volunteers to Promote Women’s Safety and Awareness of Services!

- Are you able to spare two days a Month?
- Do you want to engage women from your Community?
- Can you act as a Positive Role Model?
- Capable of developing positive relationships with women.

If YES, Contact Julia Ssengooba for further information.

Please apply to be Greenwich Development Volunteer at the Her Centre.

For more information contact,
Julia on julia@hercentre.org for an Application Form.

“empowering women to move forward with their lives”

We are Looking For Women Volunteers to Promote Women’s Safety and Awareness of Services!

- Are you able to spare two days a Month?
- Do you want to engage women from your Community?
- Can you act as a Positive Role Model?
- Capable of developing positive relationships with women.

If YES, Contact Julia Ssengooba for further information.

Please apply to be Greenwich Development Volunteer at the Her Centre.

For more information contact,
Julia on julia@hercentre.org for an Application Form.

Greenwich Development Volunteer - Role Description

Starting: 10th July 2023

Estimated Duration of Role: 6 Months

Estimated Time to be Volunteered: Minimum of 2 Days per Month (Ideally Half Day a Week)

Hours: Core Hours 10.00 to 2.00

About the Greenwich Development Women Project:

The Her Centre Multicultural Women's Project is a diverse women's network made up of volunteers from different community backgrounds working to make life better for women living in Greenwich. The forum lets its members share information and skills and efficiently promote values of diversity for women in Greenwich. Volunteers for this project will represent your own community and promote value of your community to others including help promote the work of the Her Centre.

Areas covered by the Role:

Assisting the Outreach & Development Co-ordinator to run the general activities, organise events to promote values of Multicultural Women in the community and to develop effective network with other local agencies and communities.

Activities Requirement:

- Attending meeting & training.
- Any other related work to the above HC Promotion, Outreaching to community organising events.
- Networking with the other organisations.

Skills and Qualifications:

It is expected that the volunteers will have the following: -

- Passion to promote values of your community
- Ability to develop positive relationships with women
- Ability to work with a team.
- Ability to be non-judgemental of women
- Ability to motivate others
- Ability to act as a positive role model

How to Apply:

All interested person must fill in Her Centre volunteer application form for this project and write a short statement of why you would like to represent your community, to volunteer for this project and how you would promote value of your community and works at the Her Centre. A completed application form and short statement should be sent to julia@hercentre.org

Deadline for all the application is by 4pm Friday 30th June 2023

Greenwich Development Volunteer - Role Description

Starting: 10th July 2023

Estimated Duration of Role: 6 Months

Estimated Time to be Volunteered: Minimum of 2 Days per Month (Ideally Half Day a Week)

Hours: Core Hours 10.00 to 2.00

About the Greenwich Development Women Project:

The Her Centre Multicultural Women's Project is a diverse women's network made up of volunteers from different community backgrounds working to make life better for women living in Greenwich. The forum lets its members share information and skills and efficiently promote values of diversity for women in Greenwich. Volunteers for this project will represent your own community and promote value of your community to others including help promote the work of the Her Centre.

Areas covered by the Role:

Assisting the Outreach & Development Co-ordinator to run the general activities, organise events to promote values of Multicultural Women in the community and to develop effective network with other local agencies and communities.

Activities Requirement:

- Attending meeting & training.
- Any other related work to the above HC Promotion, Outreaching to community organising events.
- Networking with the other organisations.

Skills and Qualifications:

It is expected that the volunteers will have the following: -

- Passion to promote values of your community
- Ability to develop positive relationships with women
- Ability to work with a team.
- Ability to be non-judgemental of women
- Ability to motivate others
- Ability to act as a positive role model

How to Apply:

All interested person must fill in Her Centre volunteer application form for this project and write a short statement of why you would like to represent your community, to volunteer for this project and how you would promote value of your community and works at the Her Centre. A completed application form and short statement should be sent to julia@hercentre.org

Deadline for all the application is by 4pm Friday 30th June 2023

