

Stand by Her Training!

Do you want to play a role in tackling violence against women? Sign up for last free online training below!

We live in a society where 97% of young women have been sexually harassed. Men's violence against women is widespread but still perceived purely as a women's issue.

This training covers how to challenge sexual harassment when you witness it, safely and effectively.

To sign up for free on-line training contact Reshma at reshma@hercentre.org to book your place.

Training is 2 hours and covers the 5 ways to address harassment and the considerations for your safety and the safety of others.

- 30th January 10am to 12pm – Women only

Please sign up and we will send you confirmation and a link.